BIOGRAPHY

Treasured for her infectious energy and captivating sets that blend Global dance music, at the intersection of Underground Club culture, and feel good classics. Venus Flytraxx has spent over a decade bringing the spirit of Carnival and Afrofuturism to partygoers spinning Open-Format sets, plus specialist House, Disco, R&B/Hip Hop events. Known for spinning a Fusion of Flytraxx, she seamlessly blends African-Caribbean diaspora sounds with US & UK club anthems. Her performances take Discotheques on a journey through sounds, uniting the room with her effervescent character as she elevates your vibe.

Growing up in Southeast London during an era dominated by 80s Soul, 90's R&B, House, Hip Hop, and Sound system culture, Venus was deeply influenced by the vibrant world of black music. The event's she attended with Disc Jockeys blending the heaviest tunes with basslines and rhythms that lifted spirits in marginalized communities, helped to shape her desire to not only perform and make music, but also foster the versatile DJing style she's loved for fusing her African-Caribbean heritage with London raised influence.

Renowned for her confident stage presence and musical expertise, Venus's sets feature seamless blends and unexpected transitions. It's imperative that she transfers her education of Sound System culture and the electric feeling of Caribbean Carnivals through speakers to lift crowds higher. Her eclectic mix has earned praise from high-profile figures like x8 F1 Champion Sir Lewis Hamilton, Bel-Air Actor Jimmy Akingbola, to DJ legends such as DJ Pierre and Natasha Diggs. Expressing her love and appreciation of timeless music with grooves that offer audiences a journey of celebration, sound healing and high vibrations.

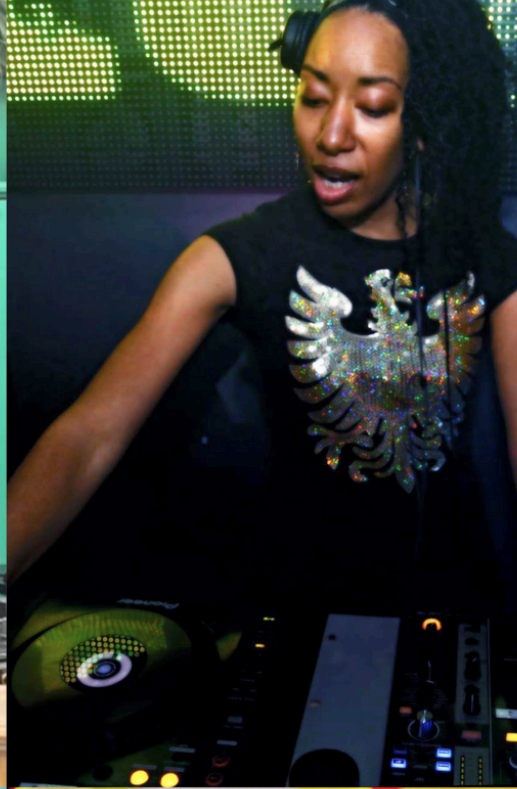

Today, Venus continues to entertain international crowds, bridging generational gaps by blending classics with new innovative releases that shine a spotlight on both emerging and overlooked talent. As a tastemaker, she showcases music's power to heal and unite, pushing the boundaries of club culture and creative wellness. Whether curating events or producing her own tracks, Venus remains dedicated to inspiring communities with her boundless energy, passion and Flytraxx.
